Further testimony was heard before Commissioner Wilson in the land case of Frank Mosier vs. Thomas E. Davis.

FIRST CLUB SOCIAL.

A Pleasant and Enjoyable Dance at the Opera House.

Through the courtesy of S. E. Patton, the members of the Montezuma Club and their lady friends enjoyed a very pleasant hop at the Opera House last night. Some twenty couples of Phoenix young people, most prominent in social affairs, were present, and all enjoyed themselves to the utmost. The following were those present:

Mr. and Mrs. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goldman, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Goldman, Mr. and Mrs. Hiller, Mr. and Mrs. St. Claire, Mr. and Mrs. Howley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kibbey, Mr. and Mrs. Talbot, Dr. and Mrs. Helm, Dr. and Mrs. Belden, Mr. and Mrs. Kellner, Mrs. E. J. Bennett, Mrs. Coates, Mrs. Chandler, Misses Talbot, Bryant, Farish, Rankin, Winton, Coates, Goodrich, Hansen, Gilbert and Messrs. Grant, Judge Pope, Captain Keating, S. E. Patton, Colonel Johnstone, F. L. Wood, Henry L. Wharton, Norton, Spangenberg, Breakeridge, Chalmers, Vincent, Davis, Goldwater, Burdick, Brecht, Fleischman, Crenshaw, Merrill, Gill, Peck, Burris and Brown.

Damon Acquitted of Forgery.

LOS ANGELES, November 14.—James M. Damon, ex-member of the Assembly and a well known attorney, has been acquitted in the Superior Court on the charge of forgery. It was alleged that Damon forged a note for $110, which he discounted at a bank. There are two other cases against Damon, in which he is charged with forging names to a note for $150.

The Serpent Disaster.

LONDON, November 14.—A dispatch from Corunna says: The survivors of the Serpent state that several mishaps occurred to her before she was wrecked. The admiralty officials flatly contradict the statement of Admiral Elliot, and assert that the Serpent was perfectly seaworthy. Thirty bodies have been washed ashore at Corunna, but none of the officers are yet found.

Change in a Pork Packing Firm.

CHICAGO, November 14.—The announcement was made today that Philip D. Armour and Michael Cudahy had dissolved partnership, Armour making over his interest in the Omaha house in exchange for Cudahy's interest in the Chicago house. The separation is entirely amicable and was the outcome of Cudahy's intention to retire from the active outside business of the firm.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

Guatemala Remains Neutral—No Prospect of a General War.

CITY OF MEXICO, November 14.—A Salvadorian envoy is now in Guatemala settling the terms of peace.

President Barillas, of Guatemala, telegraphs that it is not true he sent troops to aid Bogran. The Guatemalan troops were sent to the frontier to avoid difficulties. Everything is quiet here and there is no possibility of a general Central American war. President Diaz says Mexico will by no means interfere.

Bogran has reorganized the forces which have arrived from all parts of the country and is besieging Sanchez in Tegucigalpa.

Guatemala has positively determined to remain neutral in the present conflict.

THE IRISH TRIALS.

Attorneys in the Conspiracy Cases Wax Indignant at Rulings of the Court.

DUBLIN, November 14.—In the trial of the conspiracy cases at Clonmel today, Redmond, for the defense, spoke bitterly against the Government's policy in the case. He wanted to call Canon Keller to testify regarding the occurrences on the Pousonby estate, but the Court ruled the evidence inadmissible, whereupon Redmond declared the trial a mockery, and said he would go no further.

V. R. Diller, Mr. Sheehy and Patrick O'Brien took the same course.

DAIRY PRODUCTS.

Butter Men Do Not Wish to be Classed With Oleomargarine.

CHICAGO, November 14.—The Columbian Dairy Association met this morning to discuss World's Fair matters.

Mr. Boyd, of Illinois, reported that the dairy products had been classed by the World's Fair Commissioners as animal fat, and oleos and butterine were of course in the same class. This was objected to by a member, who said there would be no dairy exhibit unless it was separate and distinct from the bogus products of the animal. The matter was discussed at some length.

CONDENSED TELEGRAMS.

John Delle, American consul at Bristol, England, died yesterday.

Slavin says he is willing to fight Corbett in England, San Francisco or elsewhere in America for £1000 a side.

The hull steamer Brentwater struck a reef off Cape Finisterre, Spain, yesterday and foundered. Two of the crew were drowned and sixteen saved.

At Buffalo, N. Y., three Italians were killed and several others seriously injured in a collision between gravel trains last evening on the Lackawanna road.

The third annual convention of American Agricultural Colleges and Experimental Stations is in session at Champaign, Ill., with delegates from all over the country.

Premier Munro, at Melbourne, has announced an intention to convene a conference of delegates from all the Australian governments and people to consider measures for the prevention of strikes.

At Erie, Pa., James McSloy, a mechanic, and S. Benson were accidentally killed while moving some machinery yesterday. Henry Suiter, a naval veteran who was a warm friend of McSloy, on hearing of his death, went home and suicided.
